Changes From SB 90 (2021)

Required Disclosure

In an attempt to make voter registration harder for organizations, the Republicans and Tallahassee have passed a law that requires us to disclose the following information:

- The voter has the option to register to vote online
- The voter acknowledges that by registering with you there is a possibility that their form may not be turned in on time
- The voter may check the status of their voter registration on the Florida Secretary of State's website.

Pro Tip: Wait to give the disclosure until after they have filled out the form and have handed it back to you. If they then decide they no longer wish to register with you, write the word "VOID" in big letters across the front page and show the voter. Be sure to keep that form and turn it in at the end of your shift.

Best Practices

- When asking voters if they would like to register, use a presumptive ask. ("Let's get you registered to vote", "let's get your information updated just in case")
- Keep track of every form you start the shift with, even if one gets damaged or incomplete, we have to turn them all into the Supervisor of Elections.
- When a form gets completed, write the time, date, and your initials on the margins of the back of the form.
- Use the Florida Democratic Party's 3PVRO number, 3P-11-89 when registering voters. If you are doing a VR event with party field staff, they will take care of placing that number on the forms for you. If your event is not run by the Florida Democratic Party, you can write the 3PVRO number on the margins of the back of any form that gets completed by a voter.
